

Volunteer Opportunities

Birthday Wishes, Horizons for Homeless Children, and School on Wheels of Massachusetts are nonprofit organizations offering services to children and their families experiencing homelessness in Massachusetts while they are living in emergency shelter. They also provide additional support, foster exploration, and help to create fun activities during an often stressful transitional period.

Donations

Taunton Family Center staff appreciates receiving donations on behalf of families. The center is always looking for new twin sheets, twin blankets, toiletries for adults and children, diapers, and gift cards to stores like Trucchi's, CVS, and Walmart.

In addition, small household items are gratefully accepted.

Adopt-A-Room

For under $2,500, you can refurbish one of our rooms, which can be dedicated to an individual, business, or in someone's memory. This donation is tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law.
